

INSPIRATION

We are naturally wise.

Writing involves the whole self.

Any growth in any area makes us better writers.

Journeys within inspire connection in every direction.

Play convinces ego to take a break, making creation easier.

Learning to write takes a lifetime and is never done. Thankfully.

Writing requires practice. That's all. To begin, record one word.

Every person, every writer, knows how. Even if we forgot.

We are arrows pointed at dreams. Aim with love.

The creative process requires mistakes.

Forgive. Learn. Continue.

Share wisdom.
